Re: Delegation of authority to execute contracts on behalf of the University of Kansas

Dear Ms. Miller:

Section II, D, 11 (a) (iv) of the Board of Regents Policy Manual authorizes only the Chancellor and her designees to execute contracts on behalf of the University of Kansas. I am writing to notify you of the positions to which I have delegated my authority to execute contracts. The designees include those filling these positions in “acting” or “interim” capacities.

I have identified three categories of agreements for which I am delegating contract execution authority: (1) affiliation agreements within the United States; (2) other contracts that do not involve the expenditure of University funds; and (3) contracts for purchases of goods or services in excess of $100,000.

AFFILIATION AGREEMENTS

Consistent with longstanding practice, I will retain sole authority to sign affiliation agreements with non-U.S. universities, non-U.S. governmental entities, and all other affiliations or agreements with University-level significance or impact.

Subject to the foregoing, persons in the following positions are authorized to execute affiliation agreements with U.S. entities, such as operating agreements with controlled corporations of the University and affiliation agreements with universities governmental entities, and other organizations; agreements that reflect arrangements and alignments traditionally requiring the approval of senior University leadership other than the Chancellor (Note: affiliation agreements for student internships and clinical placements are categorized as Other Non-Purchase Agreements, discussed below). University policy requires that all contracts be reviewed by the Office of the General Counsel before execution, including these affiliation agreements.

Provost and Executive Vice Chancellor, Lawrence
Executive Vice Chancellor, KU Medical Center

OTHER NON-PURCHASE AGREEMENTS

Persons in the following positions are authorized to execute agreements that do not involve the expenditure of University funds, and are not significant affiliation agreements, as defined above. These include exchange agreements, material transfer agreements, confidential disclosure agreements, powers of attorney, agreements resulting in services to campus entities, educational services agreements, and affiliation agreements for student internships and clinical placements. University policy requires that all contracts be reviewed by the Office of the General Counsel before execution, including these non-purchase agreements, even if the agreement is income producing.

AGREEMENTS FOR THE PURCHASE OF GOODS AND SERVICES

As to the purchase of goods and services up to $100,000, departments may purchase items and services from approved supplier contracts or items and services under University purchasing bid limits so long as they are within departmental budgets. All items or services that have to be bid are processed and reviewed in the appropriate University's Purchasing and/or Comptroller's Offices. University policy requires that all contracts be reviewed by the Office of the General Counsel before execution, regardless of the contract amount, and regardless of whether funded with state, private, or Endowment funds.

Persons in the following positions are authorized to execute agreements for purchases of goods or services in excess of $100,000 after the completion of all legal and business reviews and approvals required under the University's policies and procedures.
